Venue: Kokrajhar Govt. College Campus.

Objective: To celebrate the advent of Spring season or the last day of the month of Chaitra which is also one of the most celebrated festival of the region.

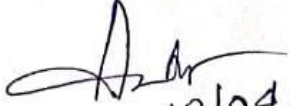

Outcome: Active participation from the Students and Teachers on the field of culture and tradition.

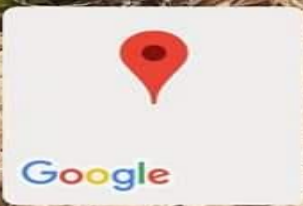

Bwisagu is the New Year Festival celebrated by Bodo's during the month of April. The college celebrates the event every year before the Bihu holiday. As a part of the program, a team consisting of teachers and students went to Baokhungri hill to collect edible leaves and vegetables for "Gwkha Gwkhwi" an item of meat usually pork and chicken with 101 variety of medicinal plants consumed by Bodo's on the day of Sankranti, the last day of the year (or the last day of the month of Chaitra). It is the season filled with the rhythmic sound of Kham, Siphung, Jhota, Serja, Jabkring (Bodo traditional music instrument) celebrated in every corner of bodo belts. The students, to uphold the spirit of Bwisagu did organized cultural programme in the college premises where the women folk in their traditional attires stretch out their hands like a butterfly and performed Bagurumba & Bwisagu Dance. The men folks in their traditional attire along with their traditional instruments filled the air with vibrant music. They also participated in the traditional sports like "Thalir Gakhw Nai" & "Owa Gakhw Nai" which is generally played to mark the event of Bwisagu festival. The college not only organizes the programme to celebrate Bwisagu but to glorify unity in diversity in the region. Students from various communities participated in the programme to showcase their culture and tradition. In the event students performed Mizo Bamboo Dance, Nepali Dance, Bihu Dance, Bengali Dance to make the celebration a colourful one. It generally falls when of Assam celebrates Rongali Bihu and at the same time Baisakhi festival in other states like Punjab and Haryana.
