

Report on
Sahitya Academi Programme
“Through My Widow” & “Mulakat”
Organised by: Sahitya Akademi in collaboration with Kokrajhar Govt College, Kokrajhar

Date: 23-03-2021

Time: 10:30 AM

Venue: Seminar Hall (AB-1)

Objective:

1. To familiarize with the life and works of Sahitya Akademi and Tagore Literature awardee winner Brajendra Kumar Brahma.
2. To introduce and new emerging Bodo writers and poets with the renown Bodo literary personalities of present times in the “Mulakat” session.

Outcome:

1. Familiarizing and heightened understanding of the life and works of Sahitya Akademi and Tagore Literature awardee winner Brajendra Kumar Brahma.
2. Interaction and introduction of the new generation writers and poets with the renown Bodo Literary personalities for better understanding the minds of the readers and their views.

Sahitya Akademi Programmes “Through My Window” and “Mulakat” was Organised by Sahitya Akademi in Collaboration with Kokrajhar Govt. College. The inaugural address was given by Ms. Anjalee Basumatary, Member of Bodo Advisory Board of Sahitya Akademi and Co-ordinator of IQAC, Kokrajhar Govt. College. Dr. Banabina Brahma, Principal Kokrajhar Govt. College graced the programme as Chief Guest. In her speech she highlighted on Brajendra Kumar Brahma, the great poet of Bodo Literature. The programme “Through My Widow” was chaired by Dr. Indira Boro, HoD, Department of Bodo & Dean of Arts, Bodoland University. In her introductory speech she revealed the techniques of Brajendra Kumar Brahma in his works and how his works influences and has deep impact in the works of the contemporary writers. The resource person Dr. Bhoumik Chandra Baro, Asstt. Professor Department of Bodo, Bodoland University presented his impression on “Life & Works of Brajendra Kumar Brahma”. In “Through My Widow” programme, the resource person Dr. Baro dealt with the works which reflected the experiences of Brajendra Kumar Brahma. The discussion centered mainly on the poetry of Brajendra Kumar

Brahma, his use of images, symbols and latest technique of expression in his poetry.

"Mulakat" programme was chaired by Ms. Anjalee Basumatary, Member of Bodo Advisory Board of Sahitya Akademi and Co-ordinator of IOAC, Kokrajhar Govt. College, Kokrajhar. After the inaugural speech by Ms. Anjalee Basumatary, the programme came to life when four participants Ms. Binapani Narzary, Mr. Dhanan Brahma, Mr. Dhirjyu Jyoti Basumatary, Ms. Sadhana Brahma read out their poetries. Mr. Ranjoy Brahma mesmerized the audience through his Short Story as he read it out loud. There were around fourteen off campus participants who actively discussed the vision of literature and the rise of contemporary literature and its importance in highlighting the exact scenario of the society. They also gave their opinions regarding the importance of poetry which reflects the inner intellect of the writers which paves the way to bring in reformation in the society.

Total Faculty Participants: 12

Total Students Participants: 72

Total Off Campus Participants: 14

Total Participants: 98

23/3/2024

(Ms. Anjalee Basumatary)
Programme Co-ordinator

Principal 23/3/2024
Kokrajhar Govt. College
Kokrajhar

Some glimpses of the Sahitya Akademi Programmes “Through My Window” and “Mulakat”

