NOTICE
(Har Ghar Tiranga Selfie Upload)

In pursuance of notification of Director of Education, Bodoland Territorial Council, it is hereby informed to all that in connection with the 78th Independence Day, all teaching and non-teaching staff along with all students of the college are requested to Click a Picture with the Tiranga and upload their respective selfie by tomorrow on 14-08-2024 from 9:00 AM onwards to be held in the college premises.

The link for uploading the selfie: <https://harghartiranga.com/>

Step by Step Guidelines:

- Go to the official website, click on Upload Selfie, and then select 'Click to Participate' or Next.
- Enter basic information such as name, phone number, state, and country.
- Upload a selfie with the Tiranga.
- Grant the portal permission to use the picture, then click on the 'Generate Certificate' option to complete the process.

Following these steps will generate a certificate, making participants a part of this national movement.

The Indian flag should be handled with utmost respect, as prescribed by the 'Flag Code of India 2002' and the 'Prevention of Insults to National Honour Act, 1971'. Guidelines for correctly hoisting the flag include:

- Always display the top band in saffron and the bottom band in green. Never hoist the flag inverted.
- Ensure the flag is in good condition; never hoist a torn or damaged flag.
- The flag should remain standing and should not be dipped.
- Never use the flag as decoration; it should be placed at a high point and not used as festoon, rosette, or bunting.
- Do not incorporate the flag into costumes, uniforms, or accessories.
- Maintain a 3:2 ratio for the flag dimensions, as correct proportion is crucial for proper display.
